You can hit the buy it now and purchase the bike, or you can send me a lower offer and see if I accept your offer. You do not have to wait the full 7 day auction. This bike is located in Las Vegas. $150.00 shipping to ports in California.

- I got this bike from my old friend who has owned it for years. The bike has been sitting for the last two years and will need the carb cleaned or rebuilt, it is gummed up... The engine is fine and a strong runner, does not show any signs of oil leaks etc...Shifts through all the gears with ease and there is no damage to the frame and the rims, bars and everything else is straight. Oil is clean and tires look good. There are a few dents in the tank, as you can see and it also has a really cool bag on the back fender. It also has a aluminum swing arm, no cracks in the side cover, although they were repainted at one time. Needs only minor work and will be a great runner. I can supply a bill of sale and I will assist in international shipping. If you have any questions just let me know. THANKS<

- -Payment must be made within 3 days by paypal, or bank wire. If you would like to pay another way you must ask before bidding. Bike must be picked up within 3 weeks after auction ends, unless discussed prior to bidding. I can also assist in shipping and getting quotes for east and west coast. I can also fully wood crate this bike, if need be, for additional charges. I can broker the shipping for you and try and get the cheapest shipping with transporters that I work with all the time and I do get good rates. For overseas, bikes usually go to a port or a logistics company in the area. You will have to arrange shipping to you, although I will assist in any way that I can to get it to a port. Check my excellent feedback, I have sold on ebay since 99 and I sell a lot off motorcycles, vintage trailers, cars, RV etc.. and everybody is always happy! I am in no way a mechanic, although I have bought and sold since I was 18 and I know what is good and what is bad, and who is trying to bull $h!T and who is not. If you have any questions please feel free to ask. if you would like to talk me on the phone and you are a serious bidder please email me your phone #.
